

KIDS HELPING ANIMALS CAMP

We would like to thank the following organizations/businesses that made this week's field trips and presentations possible. Without them, our campers would not have had the experiences and opportunities made available to them. Thank you to...

FRIENDS OF HOMELESS ANIMALS (FOHA)

39710 Goodpuppy Ln, Aldie, VA 20105
(703) 385-0224 | <http://www.foha.org>

FOHA is a no-kill shelter dedicated to saving abandoned and abused dogs and cats. They provide rescue, medical care, rehabilitation and adoption services in the Northern Virginia and Washington, DC metro areas. Their shelter typically houses more than 100 dogs and provides shelter for up to 60 cats and kittens in their catteries, plus have many others in foster homes. FOHA is the only no-kill shelter of its size in the area, where visitors can meet many animals until they find the perfect pet for them. Animals are all spayed or neutered, up to date on shots and tested (and if necessary treated) for heartworm and other medical conditions. If you are looking to adopt a dog or cat, FOHA is the place to go! There are multiple ways you can help the animals out at FOHA: www.foha.org/index.php?id=25.

CANINES-N-KIDS

25050 Riding Plaza #130-120, South Riding, VA 20152 | (703) 835-4346 | <http://canineskids.org>

The Canines-N-Kids Foundation is committed to finding a cure to the devastating cancers that kids and man's best friend both develop, including bone and brain cancer, lymphoma and leukemia. They seek to raise awareness of the tremendous unmet need these vulnerable patients share, and to fund the most promising, humane comparative clinical research. The ultimate goal is to accelerate the development of better medicines and a cure for both – a real WIN-WIN!

You can help by getting involved, volunteering and donating your time and/or money. For more information on how you can help, visit: <https://canineskids.org/how-you-can-help>.
